

Introduction

My name is Abdul-Qudus Olajide, and I'm a 'Tech Dude' with penchant for Web Programing, Software Development, Interactive designs and UI/UX.

In 2019, I graduated from the University of Lagos, with a degree in Mathematics and Statistics. I joined an eCommerce company shortly after as a Front-End Developer.

While at the University I served as the Team Lead of the branding department at AIESEC, amongst other Leadership positions attained thereof.
